

IDT: Island Dance Theatre presents
Performance Class

For anyone who loves the stage

Winter 2012

Add character to your dancing; develop staging and production skills. Two performance recitals per year, winter and spring. Opportunities for traveling performances for sick, elderly and charity groups. Choreography will be both classic and student -originated. This class aims to encourage dancers to sing and singers to dance. For the recitals, dancers enrolled in other, skill-appropriate, IDT class will get preference for lead roles. Students attending only this class will be cast according to their ability. Three-hour time slot will be segmented by age and ability, so that each students works no longer than one hour at a time.
